2015 Anne Amie Twelve Oaks Estate
Chehalem Mountains AVA Pinot Noir

This wine was aged 16 months in French oak barrels and 12 months in bottle, prior to release. Pair with duck, pumpkin risotto, salmon and rib eye steaks.

“Pale to medium ruby-purple with deep aromas of smoke, black pepper and charcuterie over blackcurrant cordial and dried black cherries notes. Medium to full-bodied, it offers good concentration of black fruit with earthy/spicy character and firm tannins, with lively acidity and a very long, savory finish.”
